Division Memorandum
No. 244, s. 2021

CONDUCT AND MONITORING OF THE DEPED-GSP ADVOCACY ON SAFE AND FRIENDLY ONLINE/OFFLINE LEARNING ENVIRONMENT

To:

SGOD Chief Education Supervisor
CID Chief Education Supervisor
Public and Private Elementary and Secondary School Heads
School Information Coordinators
All Others Concerned

1. In support to the teachers' mission in maintaining a child-friendly online and offline learning environment, the Schools Division Office partnered with the Girl Scout of the Philippines, Kalinga-Apayao Council for the Facebook streaming of the safe learning environment advocacy with the theme "Together we Rise: Creating a Safe Space Online," which will be shared through DepEd Tayo Tabuk City Facebook Page on September 17, 2021 at 9:30 in the morning.
2. The activity aims to amplify the advocacy and reach various stakeholders while facilitating School-Based Management task in the implementation of Child Protection Policy and Gender and Development related Programs in the context of the new normal.
3. All schools with internet connectivity are directed to share/ cross post the advocacy on their Facebook pages through their School Information Coordinators (SICs) and document the engagement of their stakeholders.
4. For monitoring purposes, SICs should take a screenshot of their school FB Page while sharing the advocacy and comment at the SDO's original post with their school's name and the screenshot photo.
5. The material will be available in the school heads' google drive folder "SBM FILES Tabuk City" and with SGOD Youth Formation Coordinators after the conduct of the activity for schools with no internet access for any alternative means of utilization.
6. Immediate dissemination and compliance to this memorandum is required.
