CONDUCT OF THE CAREER EXPO PROGRAM FOR GRADE 12 LEARNERS

To: Assistant Schools Division Superintendent
CID and SGOD Chief Education Supervisors
Public Schools District Supervisors (NTD 1)
School Head (Tabuk City National High School)
All others concerned

1. In line with the implementation of the Career Guidance Program of the Department of Education and in support of guiding learners in making informed career decisions, the Schools Division Office of Tabuk City, in partnership with various government agencies and stakeholders, will conduct a Career Expo Program.
2. The activity details are as follows:
 - a. Activity: Career Expo Program
 - b. Date: January 28-29, 2026
 - c. Venue: Tabuk City People's Gymnasium
 - d. Participants: Grade 12 Learners of Tabuk City National High School
 - e. Partner Agencies: PESO, DOLE, TESDA, DOST, DTI, City Special Concerns and Coordinating Office, and other stakeholders.
3. The Career Expo aims to provide Grade 12 learners with relevant information and guidance on higher education, employment, entrepreneurship, and skills training to assist them in making sound and realistic career choices.
4. The School Head is requested to ensure the proper coordination, supervision, and participation of the identified learners, as well as the designation of teachers who shall accompany and oversee the students throughout the duration of the activity.
