All Others Concerned

1. In reference to Division Memorandum No. 254, s. 2026 entitled "Participation in the 19th City Founding Anniversary Celebration and Grand Civic Parade of Tabuk City," the following provision is hereby added:

To ensure the continuity of learning and the uninterrupted delivery of basic education services during the conduct of the activity, School Heads and teachers shall implement appropriate flexible learning options and alternative delivery strategies. Learners may be provided with self-learning modules, performance tasks, enrichment activities, project-based learning tasks, reading activities, or other suitable learning resources that can be accomplished independently. Teachers shall provide clear instructions and reasonable timelines for the completion of assigned tasks and shall ensure that participation in the activity will not adversely affect learners' access to quality learning opportunities.

2. All other provisions of Division Memorandum No. 254, s. 2026 shall remain in full force and effect.

3. Immediate dissemination of and strict compliance with this Addendum are directed.
