All Others Concerned

ATTENDANCE TO THE TRAINING UNDER THE GALATIS DI ADAL PROJECT OF BENGUET STATE UNIVERSITY

1. This is to inform all concerned that Benguet State University (BSU) will conduct a training on September 14–15, 2026, in connection with the implementation of the Galatis Di Adal Project, a community-based empowerment and capability-building initiative for parents, teachers, and youth.
2. The activity aims to enhance the capacity of teachers in conducting action research and utilizing other appropriate mechanisms to implement results-focused interventions for learners, particularly those identified at the frustration level in reading.
3. The teachers from the identified schools are the primary participants in the training. Accordingly, school heads are directed to ensure their attendance and active participation throughout the activity. In cases where a teacher is unable to attend due to unavoidable circumstances, the school head or designated Administrative Officer may attend the training as an alternative participant, subject to the guidelines and arrangements of BSU.
4. The venue, schedule, and other logistical arrangements shall be communicated directly by BSU to the concerned schools and participants.
5. For more information, queries, and other pertinent details, please feel free to contact Mr. Kenneth A. Atiwag through mobile number 09069528645.
6. For information, guidance, and compliance of all concerned.
